

Writers Rising

Women Authors Talk Feminism & Activism

Thursday, March 20th, 6:30 PM

The National Organization for Women-New York City Service Fund would like to invite you to an evening of authors, activism, and feminism. Join our exciting group of women writers as they discuss their unique contributions of fiction, poetry, and non-fiction work and the ways in which it inspires, mobilizes, and sparks debate on today's pressing issues.

Featuring:

Felice Belle

Poet, Playwright, Former Curator and Host of the Friday Night Slam series at the Nuyorican Poets Café, and author of poetry for the play History of the Word

Courtney Martin

Reporter, Professor on Gender Issues, and Author of Perfect Girls, Starving Daughters

Sofia Quintero

Screenwriter, Activist, and Author of Divas Don't Yield

Location:

Hosted by Revolution Books

9 West 19th Street (btw. 5th & 6th)

Take the 4, 5, 6, N, R, Q, W, to 14th Street Union Square

Or Take F to 14th Street and 6th Ave

(212) 691-3345

www.revolutionbooksnyc.org

Sponsored by:

NOW-NYC Service Fund | Please RSVP 212.627.9895

www.nownyc.org

NOW-NYC Members FREE

Non-Members $10 suggested donation