

Be a part of our live studio audience for this special event!

Plastic surgery competitions and women portrayed as stupid, shallow, or "slutty" gold-diggers. Such is life in reality TV, where advertisers and producers manufacture biased caricatures of women and people of color for millions of viewers. Reality TV edits life to reinforce some of our culture's most regressive stereotypes.

What is the impact for women and people of color?
It's time for a reality check.

Manhattan Neighborhood Network | 537 West 59th Street
(btwn 10th & 11th Aves)
1, A, C, B, D to 59th St.—Columbus Circle.
Seats are limited, so reserve your space today!

reserve your space online with a $15 donation to NOW-NYC & WIMN OR call 212.627.9895

Learn more at www.nownyc.org

The Service Fund
NOW-NYC

WOMEN IN MEDIA & NEWS