Raising Our Voices for Choice: A Roe Tribute & Call to Action

Thursday, January 22nd, 6:30 pm, City Hall

Even with a pro-choice President moving into the White House, women's reproductive freedom remains under threat. Get the facts on New York's Reproductive Health Act and clinic access, hear about "hotspots" for anti-choice activities across the country, and get Obama his repro rights to-do list.

Featuring:

Eleanor Bader, Pro-Choice Activist and Writer

Latifa Lyles, National NOW Officer

Galen Sherwin, NYCLU Reproductive Rights Project Director

Learn what steps you can take to protect choice and then raise your voice for choice in a post-discussion networking and post-card-writing session.
